EFFORTS OF GERMANS TO CHECK AMERICANS AND ANZACS FUTILE

Harassing the German Lines In West Shows No Sign of Abatement

Game of Striking Enemy A Solid Blow On A Small Sector Taken Up by British

Number of Prisoners Taken During Last Week On All Fronts, About Eleven Thousand

Independence Day Quietly Observed In American Lines

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Harassing of the German lines in the west shows no signs of letting up and the allies continue to gain ground here and there and bring in large batches of German prisoners.

The game of striking the enemy a solid blow on a small sector now has been taken on the British front and an advance of 1 1/2 miles on a 4-mile front with capture of 1500 prisoners south of the Somme, testifies to the hitting powers of the Australians aided by American detachments.

German efforts to hold the attacking Australians and Americans who have appeared on this part of the line for the first time, were in vain.

Last night the British had so well established themselves in their new positions that when the Germans delivered a counter attack it was easily repulsed.

Between the Oise and the Aisne where the latest French blow gained considerable ground and more than 1,000 prisoners the Germans have not attempted counter thrusts.

In the thrust south of the Somme the allies recaptured the village of Hamel and the wood south of the village. Along the Aisne Australian troops progressed 500 yards on a front of 1200 yards.

Through the successful and successive thrusts in the past ten days or more the allies on the western front have taken from the Germans positions which would have been very useful in future offensive operations.

The number of prisoners taken in the past week is nearly 6,000.

On the Italian front General Diaz has been equally successful with local attacks and his captures of prisoners since last Saturday is now well over 4,800.

American independence day on the American sectors passed off with only normal activity.

STILL ANOTHER SLACKER NABBED

Frederick Schwartz, foreman of the Grasshopper Division, and residing at Jeffersonville, is the latest man to be added to the slacker list in Fayette county, having been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on a charge of having failed to register, was taken before the Federal Judge and upon his plea of guilty, was sentenced to five days in the Fayette County Jail and at the end of that period is to be immediately inducted into military service at Camp Sherman.

The Schwartz case has been hanging fire for many months, it is announced by Department of Justice agents, and when the man's birth record was looked up in the family Bible, it was found that the record had been changed.

According to Department of Justice agents Schwartz moved from Waverly to Jeffersonville. He is married and has a wife and two children.

When his case was taken up for investigation, a trip was made to Waverly, and when his mother learned of the changed records in the Bible she declared that the new entry was false, and that her son was not too old to have registered on June 5, 1917.

She is further quoted as saying: "During the Civil War his father went to war and I was left with two children, and I guess my son is no better than his father."

The Department of Justice officials this week received word from the Federal court stating that Schwartz had entered a plea of guilty, had been sentenced to five days in jail, and after that must be inducted into military service in accordance with the usual procedure in such cases.

The orders of the court will be carried out to the letter.

BEER OUTPUT CUT

(American Press)

Washington, July 5.—Consumption of fuel used in the manufacture of beer and near beer was ordered curtailed 50 per cent during the year beginning July 1, in an announcement issued by Fuel Administrator Garfield and Chairman Baruch of the war industries board. The curtailment will be based upon the average annual consumption between Jan. 1, 1915, and Dec. 31, 1917. While effective only for one year, the curtailment was regarded in some quarters as the forerunner of further restrictions within the year.

Application of the order to the manufacture of nonalcoholic cereal beverages placed the restriction strictly upon a fuel-saving basis. Brewers may combine plants in order to keep some in operation continuously at the expense of closing others.

SLEEPS ANY OLD WAY NOW

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until 8 years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. THE DAVENPORTS' EQUESTRIAN MARVELS

Social and Personal

The Fourth was celebrated by the Coffman-Parrett families in the fourth annual reunion at Cherry Hill. A happy group of forty people assembled, finding the beautiful grove so quiet and cool under its wealth of old trees that all the heat of the day was forgotten.

A delightful social hour was followed by the opening of well filled baskets served on the green; the guests comfortably seated. During the succeeding business session suggestions for united action in patriotic service for the coming year were made by the President, Mrs. Frank A. White. Marked attention was paid to the absent ones now engaged in active service, both over seas and in training in this country.

The following officers were elected for the coming year—President, Mrs.

Frank A. White; Vice President, Mr. Harry Parrett, Secretary, Miss Berte Coffman; Treasurer, Mrs. Rell G. Allen; and the appointment of an executive board and entertaining and lookout committee.

Mr. C. C. Pavey, of Columbus, added much to the pleasure of the afternoon by the reading of an original idyl of domestic happiness and patriotic service entitled "Cawie Fast," which brought forth both tears and laughter.

Letters of greeting were sent to our absent soldiers, Major Rell G. Allen, Capt. L. P. Howell, Carl Pavey, M. S. E. Ensign Fordyce Blake and Ethan Sturgeon.

A telegram of regret and greeting was received from Ralph Pavey, of Burns, Oregon.

McCoy, daughter, Miss Myrtle, and guest, Mrs. Will James, of Cleveland Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnett, son, Edgar Earl and Robert Elias, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Junk, daughter, Mary Catharine, twin sons, Frank Carpenter and Fred Elmer; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Junk, children, Billie and Janet Mr. and Mrs. James Hays, sons Walter and Russel; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, sons Paul and Charles.

Miss Juanita Haines delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening the members of her Sunday School Class, "The Comrades" of Sugar Grove M. E. Church.

The spacious home on the creek road was hospitably thrown open and sweet peas used in decoration.

The early part of the evening was devoted to business, which consisted chiefly of plans for the ice cream social the class will hold on the grounds of Sugar Grove church next Tuesday night, the ninth. The Class chose as its colors the national colors, red, white and blue.

A delicious summer collation was served.

Mrs. Charles Allemang entertained at an enjoyable dinner, the Fourth, Miss Alice and Kate Harper of Greenfield, Mrs. Julia Benjamin, Mrs. Isaac Sollars and Miss Turner.

When the school arrived by carriage, automobile, truck, bicycle, and etc., they found everything in readiness to add to their enjoyment. It was an ideal place for the various kinds of amusements of the day—consisting of horse shoe pitching, croquet, swinging, ball, sack races, potatoe races and lounging under the trees.

At the noon hour an appetizing repast was spread upon the grass in the shade of the ancient oaks. It was a day spent in good fellowship, healthful recreation, and wholesome fun in "God's out of doors"—a happy occasion long to be remembered by all who were present.

Yesterday

The Independence Day announcements by the national officials, of war work achievements by America were the cause of great satisfaction. The people of America have labored hard, during the last year, to accomplish the task they set for themselves a little over one year ago. It was appropriate that on Independence Day the record of tasks accomplished should be made public. The work has been unselfishly and patriotically done, barring a few glaring exceptions. It was undertaken in the same spirit that actuated our forefathers in '76.

Official announcement that more than a million fighting men had already been safely transported across the ocean and had taken their place in the battle line, that in every line of war activity America had lived up to and exceeded its program of work, the indisputable evidence of the mastery of the submarine, which though still a menace, is no longer a peril, the allied supremacy in the air, the spirit of co-operation and complete understanding, perfect accord in purpose and endeavor, are only a few of the outstanding facts which gave to yesterday, America's national birthday, a new and broader significance throughout the world.

America's Fourth of July days heretofore have, of necessity, been devoted to commemorating deeds of the past. Yesterday marked the dawn of a new era. Hereafter our Independence Days will commemorate the glorious achievements of the founders of the nation, but the present generation will also be included among the Americans who have done big things for humanity.

Beautiful July

The last week, which included the first five days of the usually hot month of July, has given us some very extraordinary but enjoyable weather conditions. The days have been bright and clear, but the air has been cool and pleasant with refreshing breezes to temper the hot rays of the sun.

Harvesters could not have wished for more pleasant conditions for cutting the wheat. Generous showers have kept the vegetation clean and fresh. It is unusual to see the vegetation of all kinds as fresh and vigorous as it is in May or early June, and yet exhibiting the full maturity of the July season, as it does now.

Perhaps hotter days and nights would make the corn grow faster but people refuse, in the joy of the present glorious conditions, to worry about the effect on the corn crop—that's too far off and anyway it is too splendid now to live and see and enjoy the beauties of nature, to worry about some trouble the future may bring and we believe the corn crop will come along all right anyway—it nearly always does.

The Indisputable Proof

America's amazing record of work done during the last fifteen months, given to the public for the first time on Wednesday, is an effectual silencer for the few individuals who have, for the sake of advancing their own private or political purposes, been going up and down the land unwisely abusing the national government for its "failures."

For some reason or other the government officials have seen fit to maintain absolute silence as to what was being done. No official announcement, no official hint, if you please, has been given out as the great work progressed.

Perhaps that was one of the precautions necessitated by war, perhaps, although in view of the work accomplished it seems unlikely, it was because of a doubt of the ability to do so much in so short a time and perhaps (but that seems too small a purpose) it was to allow the frenzied objectors free rein, knowing that to explain or argue with them, during the progress of the work would but multiply their objections and add to their noise aside from distracting attention from the main purpose.

Any way, no matter what the reason, the senseless and selfish objectors stand confounded at the record given out by the national officials.

During the last fifteen months the people have given splendid evidence of their patriotism.

They have gone along responding loyally to every request of the government, their confidence unshaken by the words of the complaining ones. Now proof of the soundness of their faith in the honesty, ability and energy of the men whom they trusted with enormous tasks, stands clearly revealed.

Poetry For Today

MEN OF AMERICA.

Ye Men of America, stalwart and strong,
 England and France are thrilled as ye throng.
 Now is the test of you—drive for the goal—
 Give them the best of you—Soul of your soul—
 Oh, battle beside them for right against wrong!

Ye Men of America, stalwart and strong!
 Ye Men of America, trusty and true,
 England and France are looking to you.
 Add to their glories the daring and zest
 Write large in the stories that fame your fair West.
 Oh, fight for the Old World, rechristen the New.

Ye Men of America, dauntless and dread,
 England and France for your safety have bled.
 If now ye can aid them to vanquish the foe,
 Ye then will have paid them a part that ye owe.
 Oh, strike till the last of the Huns is dead!
 Ye Men of America, dauntless and dread!

Ye Men of America, faithful and free
 England and France are heartened to see

Descendants of Washington, Lincoln and Lee
 Intrenched in the cause of Liberty,
 Oh, onward with God to Victory,
 Ye Men of America, faithful and free!
 —Oliver Updike in the Boston Transcript.

1500 PRISONERS WERE CAPTURED

(American Press)

London, July 5.—Aided by American troops, an Australian force in a surprise attack wrested from the Germans the village of Hamel, east of Amiens, occupied Vaire and Hamel woods, south of the village, and captured more than 1,500 prisoners.

The Australians advanced under the cover of a smoke barrage and were led by tanks in the breaking of the enemy's lines over a front of more than four miles. The attack penetrated a mile and a half into the German positions.

The French also have struck savagely against the German lines, this time cutting through the enemy ranks near the town of Autrech, south of Moulin-Sous-Touvent, where on Tuesday night they won a local success and captured prisoners. Here the German lost 1,000 prisoners.

In both operations the allies have improved their positions by gaining rather high ground, which can be readily defended if the Germans launch the expected offensive.

At the same time the British, French and Americans were attacking the enemy, the Italians continued to advance in the area near the mouth of the Piave. Scattered machine gun emplacements have been cleaned out, while light boats from the Italian navy have entered the lagoons on the left flank of the Austrian armies and given valuable assistance to the land forces. The Italians also have won ground in the San Lorenzo valley, east of the Brenta river.

Fighting between the German-Soviet forces and the peasantry is reported from Yekaterinburg the city in eastern Russia, where the main line of the Trans-Siberian railroad is joined by the branches of the road running to the north and south Russia. It was reported recently that the Czechoslovak troops were in control at Yekaterinburg and it is said that an army of 200,000 peasants, well armed, has been formed there.

German attempts to drive American forces from their positions at Vaux, west of Chateau Thierry, seem to have failed utterly. There have been no further reports of desperate German efforts to regain the line from which they were unceremoniously ousted by the Americans Tuesday night.

MOST QUIET FOURTH IN RECENT YEARS

The Fourth of July passed off in this city without the least noise to indicate that the Fourth was being celebrated—as in fact it was not in the usual, old fashioned way of bursting crackers and display of fireworks.

A liberal display of flags and bunting marked the celebration in this city and in the county at large.

HAS COMEBACK FOR KICK OF SOLDIER

London, June 26.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service, has just scored very effectively in reply to a correspondent who wrote to him protesting against being held liable for military service at eighteen pence a day, "while you, Sir Auckland, a younger man than I am, remain in your London office taking ten pounds a day of your country's money.

To this Sir Auckland replied:

"Sir Auckland Geddes desires me to assure you that he does not get the sum of ten pounds a day, or anything approaching it. He thinks you may like to know that he, too, has served in the ranks as a private at the rate of pay of one shilling a day; that he joined the army in the early days of the war, has been in France and is now only in a civilian position as he is unfit for further active service as the result of injuries received by him in France. Perhaps I may add that Sir Auckland also served in the South African war."

AUTO WRECK BY B. & O. AT BLOOMINGBURG

Columbus Woman Seriously Hurt
While Companion Escapes With Severe Shaking Up--Effort Is Made to Conceal Identity

Going at fifty miles an hour the west bound Royal Blue Flyer on the B. & O. railroad, due in this city at 3:28 p. m., struck a Ford touring car at the crossing near the cemetery at Bloomingburg, Thursday afternoon, wrecking the machine and seriously injuring one of the occupants, a woman, who is still in the Fayette Hospital recovering from a deep gash in one arm, numerous cuts and bruises and nerve shock. She gave the name of Miss Marie Wright, of Columbus.

The man, who is said to be C. A. Killian, of Columbus, and who also is said to have informed the conductor that the injured woman was his wife, escaped with a few bruises and a severe shaking up. He accompanied the woman to the hospital, and later returned to Columbus on the evening train.

A deep gash in the woman's left arm, said to have been caused by a silver of glass from the shattered wind shield, severed the large artery, with the result that the woman would speedily have bled to death had she not been placed aboard the train, which backed up to the scene of the accident, and brought to this city. At the Fayette hospital the severed artery was tied and the flow of blood stopped.

The automobile carried license number 63,099, which is owned by Dr. V. P. Adams, 1103 Dennison Avenue, Columbus.

Both parties made efforts to cover up their identity and to prevent their names becoming public, it is declared.

Persons who saw the accident declare the man literally drove his machine into the train, the front part striking the front corner of the baggage car. This, it is explained, is the reason the couple were not killed outright and the entire machine dashed to bits.

As it was the machine was thrown against the warning post and badly wrecked, the engine being a complete wreck. It is claimed by those who saw the mishap that the man made no effort to stop his machine when the train suddenly dashed into view in front of him.

WEATHER REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

Washington, D. C., July 3.—The weather was warm in western and cool over northern and eastern districts. General showers occurred in Nebraska and central Kansas and eastward. Corn has improved in central districts but the weather was too dry in the southwest and too cool in the north and northeast. As a rule corn has been well cultivated. The harvesting of winter wheat was begun as far north as northern Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Nebraska. Spring wheat was damaged by the dry weather and is heading short in central North Dakota and westward, but is growing well further east. It was too dry and warm for potatoes, meadows, ranges and some truck crops in the Great Plains States but these crops are growing well in eastern states. The weather was favorable for harvesting except in parts of the central Mississippi Valley.

CIRCUS TRAVELS BY MOTOR TRUCK

When Uncle Sam's army developed into the greatest fighting machine in the world and had to be transported across the the country every available locomotive and car of every description was commandeered. A perplexing problem faced the circus kings from the big one down to the little fellow. With the tremendous growth and size of the modern circus the old fashioned wagon show was out of the question, besides the public wants something new. It seemed for a time that the great American amusement, the "circus" would have to stay in winter quarters, thus depriving the thousands of "kiddies" and "grown ups" the one big yearly event. Brains won out, for over night sprung the immense project: the owners and managers of the great Coop and Lent circus conceived the idea—move the entire aggregation with monster motor trucks. In twenty-four hours the "idea" was placed before the heads of the Service Motor Truck company and in just three hours draftsmen, mechanics and designers were at work on the most stupendous contract ever assumed by one firm. Today Coop and Lent's spectacular 3 ring circus, museum and managerie is transported from city to city on its own especially constructed motor trucks, ninety-six in number, and making a length of nearly two miles. The big circus will be with you in all its glory on the date advertised, thus making glad the hearts of young America. Coop and Lent is the first and only big enterprise to abandon the railroad trains and yet retain the immensity and greatness, which the circus of today must have. Of the many sensational features with Coop and Lent this season is dainty, daring "Dallie Julian" the peer of all equestriennes, the world's greatest bareback rider, in show will positively be on time. The Coop and Lent Circus comes

DEATH SUMMONS

REV. J. S. GRIFFITH

Rev. J. S. Griffith, formerly one of the well known ministers of the Ohio Methodist Episcopal Conference, died at his home on N. North street, on Thursday afternoon at 3:30, aged sixty-four years.

After years of devoted service to his calling, Rev. Griffith broke down in health and for several years past has lived a life of quiet consecration in this city.

His death will be learned with much regret by many friends and former parishioners. He is survived by a widow one son and three daughters, in the home in this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Hewitt, in Oregon.

Soon after coming to this city Rev. Griffith built and operated a grocery on North street, but was compelled by failing health to dispose of it.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at Grace M. E. church, at four o'clock.

The body will be placed in the mortuary of the Washington cemetery for interment later.

CHAUTAUQUA IS PROVING BIG SUCCESS

Large Audiences Delighted With Offering and Much of Best of Talent Is Yet to Come--Ben Greet Players Tonight--Cobb Here Sunday Night

With each succeeding day the success of the Washington Chautauqua grows in extent, and each number is leaving big audiences greatly pleased with the talent offered, while the best of the Chautauqua is yet to come.

Tonight the Famous Ben Greet Players present "The Comedy of Errors" and indications are that the audience will be the largest yet, although the big tent has been taxed to capacity at nearly all sessions.

The youngest State Senator in America, Hon. Harold C. Kessinger, will be on the program both Saturday afternoon and night. Alice Louise Shrode, Child Artist, also appears in the afternoon, and the Junior Chautauquans and Miss Shrode present the Patriotic pageant, "Our Allies," on Saturday evening.

The Castle Court singers appear Sunday afternoon and night, and Irvin S. Cobb, noted humorist, journalist and war correspondent, appears Sunday night.

Ralph Dunbar's Royal Dragoons proved a popular attraction Wednesday afternoon and night, and Col. Geo. W. Bain, in his lecture, Wednesday evening, on "If I could Live Life over" offered many thoughtful points for consideration of both old and young.

The Crawford Adams Company, Thursday afternoon and night, made a decided hit with the large audience who heard them. Their music was exceptionally good and was faultlessly rendered. Mr. Crawford Adams is a violinist of the very first rank, and his numbers were greatly appreciated. The other members of his company were gifted and their work was most pleasing.

ADD CHAUTAUQUA... "After the War, What" was the topic of an intensely interesting lecture given by Dr. Frank Bohn, Thursday night, in which he discussed the war and what, in his opinion, might be the probable result.

Dr. Bohn is of German parentage, but his family left Germany when the revolutionary effort failed years ago. He has studied the German people much, and has spent many years in Germany.

Dr. Bohn declared that no revolution can be expected from the German people, as the military authorities hold the people under their heel having all arms and virtually all power to inflict bitter punishment upon those who might start a revolt.

That the only way to change the German people is to eliminate the yoke of militarism; that the German people worship Kaiserism, but if the error of their ways is shown them and the bonds of Kaiserism broken, then the German people will prove themselves worthy.

Dr. Bohn declared that it will be America's task to lead in the reconstruction after the war, and that the task is a mighty one, and virtually means the reconstruction of the world on a much higher plane than before.

He announced that Germany might even be willing to give up Alsace-Lorraine and Belgium if she can retain her holding in Russia, where the great danger of the future exists, and where Germany, if allowed to retain her new holdings, will endeavor to spread eastward and eventually control China.

Dr. Bohn believes great things may be expected after the war, and that steps will be taken to prevent another tragedy like that which has shaken the world to its foundations.

TOO MUCH BOOZE AUTO HITS FENCE

A party of autoists, said to be from Dayton and who apparently were bound for Camp Sherman, went through the fence at the Allen home, in West Lancaster, Thursday, tearing down some fence and breaking the machine.

It is stated that there was a liberal supply of booze in the machine, and that it failed to mix well with gasoline.

IS DISCHARGED

Wm. Mayo, colored, who was inducted into military service from this county, and later transferred from Camp Sherman to Camp Grant, as a member of a machine gun company, has been given honorable discharge because of defective hearing, and has returned to his home in this city.

CROP SUMMARY

The rainfall of the week though somewhat below normal was quite general and very beneficial, especially to corn and potatoes. Wheat harvesting and haying were carried on under excellent weather conditions. The cutting of wheat is in progress as far north as Van Wert and Crawford counties and will be begun in the lake counties by the 10th. Threshing of wheat will begin in Highland and Miami counties the coming week. The oat crop is good to excellent though heading short in some central counties. Frost damage to corn on the 23d was a little more serious than at first thought in the low lands of some of the northwestern counties. Otherwise the crop is in good to excellent condition. The potato crop is improving and gardens are fine. The fruit crops are generally very poor.

FOUR BOYS DEAD

San Francisco, July 5.—Two boys were killed instantly, two more are believed to have met a similar fate and one was injured, probably fatally, when they accidentally exploded some fireworks in a warehouse while attempting to steal firecrackers. According to the police, the injured boy admitted he had dropped a lighted match near the explosives. The explosion was felt throughout the city and by points several miles distant.

Germans Desert.

London, July 5.—Young Germans learning to fly are deserting into Holland wholesale. "Whole batches of German pilots training at Nivelles in Belgium," says a British official statement, "secreted stores of petrol and flew across the Dutch frontier, where they were surrounded and interned."

Sultan of Turkey Dead.

Amsterdam, July 5.—Mohammed V, sultan of Turkey, is dead, says a Constantinople dispatch received here by way of Vienna. Much speculation followed receipt of the report, regarding what effect his death may have on Turkey's attitude in the world war. He has been on the throne since 1909.

Americans Repulse Raiders.

Washington, July 5.—Repulse of three enemy raiding parties which attempted to reach the American lines in the Vosges was reported in General Pershing's communique. Intense artillery activity on both sides northwest of Chateau Thierry was noted. The enemy suffered severely from American fire.

FIRST WHEAT IS OF FINE QUALITY

The first wheat threshing reported in Fayette county was that of Maynard Eckle, of Madison township, who threshed his wheat on Wednesday.

Mr. Eckle had 19 acres of wheat that produced 22 bushels per acre.

The grain was of excellent quality, testing 60 pounds to the bushel.

Threshing is now becoming more and more in evidence throughout the county, and some good yields are anticipated.

BRIDGE SAFEGUARDS LIVES OF CITIZENS

The erection of the bridgework and small house on top of it in front of the P. & D. bank building, has attracted quite a bit of attention during the past few days.

The bridgework, which is of very substantial timbers, offers protection to pedestrians while the work of removing the old structure and erecting the new one is under way. It is the modern way of handling a building proposition instead of blocking the sidewalks and not offering proper protection to the pedestrian.

The little house atop the bridge-work, which has been the source of considerable conjecture as to its use, is Superintendent Dawber's office.

VACANT COTTAGE BURNS TO GROUND

A vacant cottage, or hut, owned by David McCann, and located on Florence street, Avondale, burned to the ground about one o'clock Thursday morning.

The blaze was discovered by a man passing along Washington Avenue, in an automobile, and reported after he had driven up to a local garage. The fire department was then notified and hurried to the scene, but the house was virtually destroyed by the time the department reached the scene.

It was necessary to lay 1,000 feet of hose to reach the burning structure.

How the fire started has not been determined.

RECORDS BROKEN

(American Press)

Washington, July 5.—All coinage records of the United States mint were broken during the fiscal year ending June 30, both for value and number of new pieces of money put into circulation, the report of the director of the mint shows. A total number of 714,129,119 new coins were made, with a value of $43,596,895, against $25,445,148 coined in 1917.

The mint turned out 528,351,479 one-cent pieces before the public need was satisfied. In 1917 an output of 213,501,198 one-cent pieces was sufficient. The nickel showed no such demand in popularity, and the number coined in 1918, amounting to $2,723,278, was only slightly greater than in the previous year.

Silver coins also came out of the mint in greatly increased numbers. There were 24,105,440 half dollars made, against 3,179,808 during the previous year, and 45,223,400 quarters in comparison with 19,578,000 made in 1917. There were 116,545,500 new dimes made, as against 87,642,000 in 1917.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Washington C. H. people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mrs. J. J. Cramblett of 474 S. Fayette Street, Washington C. H. endorsed Doan's four years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"I was all run down and I had to give up my work," says Mrs. Cramblett. "An attack of lumbago left me helpless. My back ached and it pained me so much I could hardly bend over. My kidneys showed many signs of weakness. I couldn't sleep well and mornings, I could hardly get out of bed. My head ached and I had such dizzy spells, I could hardly walk. I was nearly a physical wreck. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they put me in good health." (Statement given July 31, 1913.)

On August 7, 1917, Mrs. Cramblett said: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills again. Whenever I notice any symptoms of kidney trouble coming on, I use Doan's and soon get fine relief."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cramblett had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Advt.

Wendel, little son of Mr. and Mrs. David Whiteside, of Yatesville, was rushed to this city, Thursday afternoon, for medical attention after having swallowed a small quantity of an eye wash mixture containing a poison.

The little lad was suffering greatly, and the mixture affected his sight and caused a high fever. After medical attention he was taken back to his home and is recovering.

Fortunately the child swallowed only a small portion of the mixture.

GARDENS AND PETS AFFORD RELIEF

Headquarters of the American Troops With the British Army in France, June 23.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—American boys in the war zone learning from British officers and soldiers what the war has taught in the way of battle tactics are getting an antidote for the mental effects of their fighting education. This is offset by a compound of gardening and pets.

"It is not a good thing for the boys that their minds be centered solely on stabbing, shooting and thumping," said a young colonel of the British army to the correspondent of The Associated Press recently. This officer, who won his promotion at a little over thirty by gallant conduct at Loos and other places where the Black Watch distinguished itself, now commands one of the British army schools where musketry, machine gun fire, the use of the bayonet and jiu-jitsu are taught.

He pointed to an American boy who was industriously spading a future potato patch. "This is how we try to lighten their thoughts," he added.

A New Zealand band was playing lively airs on the green, a litter of pigs was squealing an accompaniment from a sty hidden behind a thicket and just around the corner hens were clucking to their broods from an enclosure alongside which was a pen of highly bred rabbits. Meanwhile two pet dogs barked in answer to the rattle of machine guns from the ranges where newly arrived allies were trying their marksmanship.

The men who were not shooting, cultivating ground already sown or preparing for further seeding were trimming the lawn or tending flower beds. There is everything here to suggest the opposite of war.

The commanding officer who happens to be one of the men under whom the regretted Johnny Poe served would say little of the work of his pupils with the bayonet and the gun further than the American boys were keen to learn and quick to absorb. The fighting education he left to his instructors.

This policy prevails at other British schools of the same character. Some of them add bee-keeping to their program. All of them have their pets and most of them their gardens. All of them will give their American pupils much to relieve the depressing effects of continual thoughts of bloodshed.

SOLE ISSUE IS MILITARY SAYS WILSON

(American Press)
Washington, July 5.—America's declaration of independence was of force to the peoples of the world by President Wilson, who delivered an address at Mt. Vernon, Va., with a pledge that the United States and its allies will not sheathe the sword in the war against the central powers until there is settled "once for all" for the world what was settled for America in 1776.

Foreign born citizens of the United States, 32 nationalities, who had placed wreaths on Washington's tomb in token of fealty to the principles laid down by the father of his country, cried their approval of his words. The president said:

"It is significant that Washington and his associates, like the barons at Runnymede, spoke and acted, not for a class, but for a people. It has been left for us to see to it that it shall be understood that they spoke and acted not for a single people only, but for all mankind; they were thinking, not of themselves and of the material interests which centered in the little groups of landholders and merchants and men of affairs with whom they were accustomed to act, in Virginia and the colonies to the north and south of here, but of a people which wished to be done with classes and special interests and the authority of men whom they had not themselves chosen to rule over them. They entertained no private purpose desired no peculiar privilege. They were consciously planning that men of every class should be free and America a place to which men out of every nation might resort who wished to share with them the rights and privileges of free men."

"We here in America believe our participation in this present war to be only the fruitage of what they planted. Our case differs from theirs only in this, that it is our inestimable privilege to concert with men out of every nation what shall make not only the liberties of America secure, but the liberties of every other people as well. We are happy in the thought that we are permitted to do what they would have done had they been in our place."

Must Be Settled Now.

"There must now be settled once for all what was settled for America in the great age upon whose inspiration we draw today. This is surely a fitting place from which calmly to look out upon our task, that we may fortify our spirits for its accomplishment. And this is the appropriate place from which to avow, alike to the friends who look on and to the friends with whom we have the happiness to be associated in action, the faith and purpose with which we act."

"This, then is our conception of the great struggle in which we are engaged. The plot is written plain upon every scene and every act of the supreme tragedy. On the one hand stand the peoples of the world—not only the peoples actually engaged, but many others also who suffer under mastery but can not act; peoples of many races and in every part of the world, the people of stricken Russia still among the rest, though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless. Opposed to them, masters of many armies, stand an isolated, friendless group of governments who speak no common purpose, but only selfish ambitions of their own by which none can profit but themselves and whose peoples are fuel in their hands; governments which fear their people and yet are for the time their sovereign lords, making every choice for them and disposing of their lives and fortunes, as they will as well as of the lives and fortunes of every people who fall under their power—governments clothed with the strange trappings and the primitive authority of an age that is altogether alien and hostile to our own. The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them."

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise, no half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. There are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."

"First—The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world, or, if it can not be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence."

"Second—The settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, or economic arrangement, or political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned, and not upon the basis of the material interest or advantage of any other nation or people which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own exterior influence of mastery."

"Third—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their relations with one another; to the end that all promises and covenants may be sacredly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity, and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right."

"Fourth—The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that can not be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned."

pose desired no peculiar privilege. They were consciously planning that men of every class should be free and America a place to which men out of every nation might resort who wished to share with them the rights and privileges of free men."

The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them."

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise, no half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. There are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."

"First—The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world, or, if it can not be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence."

"Second—The settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, or economic arrangement, or political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned, and not upon the basis of the material interest or advantage of any other nation or people which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own exterior influence of mastery."

"Third—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their relations with one another; to the end that all promises and covenants may be sacredly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity, and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right."

"Fourth—The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that can not be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned."

"These great objects can be put into a single sentence. What we seek is the reign of law, based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind."

"These great ends can not be achieved by debating and seeking to reconcile and accommodate what statesmen may wish, with their projects for balances of power and of national opportunity. They can be realized only by the determination of what the thinking peoples of the world desire with their longing hope for justice and for social freedom and opportunity."

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

The Red Cross Chapter of Fayette county has received its apportionment of work to be completed by the first of September. It comprises 2,000 pairs of socks, 100 sweaters, 100 girls' pinafores, 500 bed shirts, 100 women's house gowns.

The chapter is greatly handicapped by the lack of materials. No new yarn or other needed materials have been received for five weeks and many eager workers are waiting with idle hands for the next shipment. When it arrives there will be need for fast work by many hands.

KNIT.

Make your knitting needles click faster than ever during these summer months. For now is the time to prepare for the freezing cold of the late fall and winter, when a million of our boys will be "over there." The Red Cross asks you to make the following articles this summer, get directions for making any or all of them from your local chapter. Directions change from time to time, as new and better methods are discovered. That is one of the proofs of the efficiency of the Red Cross—its ability to keep up with changing methods and demands. So get the latest instructions and knit, knit, knit.
